Ruth Abram, founder and President of Behold, New Lebanon is looking for residents of Canaan who have a skill they would be willing to teach paying visitors. That is the basic idea behind “Behold! New Lebanon (www.beholdnewlebanon.org). New Lebanon and Canaan residents might be willing to open their homes, farms, forests, fields and places of business to teach skills which have made it possible to live successfully in the rural environment. These skills include sausage and jam making, foraging, tracking, historic restoration, animal breeding and training, theatrical design and much more. If you are interested in being a teacher at this event, Ruth Abram would like to meet with you.
